I can appreciate this book, but mostly I'm left thinking that there are probably other Joyce Carol Oates novels I would enjoy more. The narrator is alternately relatable and pitiable, but for me, she was also nonstop annoying. I don't totally regret reading it, but I wouldn't recommend it.

I'll Take You There A Novel Joyce Carol Oates

I'll Take You There is an unflinching view of the life of an obsessive college student describing her run-in with sorority life and her compulsive love for a black philosophy graduate student. As usual for Oates, this book is filled with remarkable prose that is piercing and haunting. My biggest complaint is the cover, which makes this book look like Chick Lit. It's not. Recommended.
